In accordance with Local Rule 7.1(b)(4), Plaintiff Skyline Software Systems, Inc. (“Skyline”) and Defendants Keyhole, Inc. and Google Inc. (Defendants collectively, “Google”) jointly request leave to file Opening Claim Construction Briefs that each respectively exceed twenty (20) pages in length.

The parties have met and conferred and made good faith efforts to narrow the claim construction issues for this Court. There remain, however, approximately ten disputed terms that the parties will be briefing. Skyline and Google each anticipate the need for more than twenty pages to adequately address the claim construction issues associated with the disputed claim terms.

WHEREFORE, Skyline and Google jointly move this Court for an order allowing Skyline and Google to file a respective brief in excess of twenty pages, but not to exceed thirty pages.

Dated: September 28, 2006

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ Darryl M. Woo
